MEMORANDUM TO CHIEF, CONTACT BRANCH

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

On or about 2 October 1947 your Branch was kind enough to loan the Foreign Broadcast Information Branch the services of [REDACTED] to alleviate a temporary acute shortage of editorial personnel in this Branch. This acute shortage having been partially remedied, [REDACTED] is being relieved from duty effective at the close of business today.

By reason of [REDACTED] background and experience, he was able in a minimum of time to be of real assistance in the German and Near & Middle East Sections of the Editorial Division. His cooperation, willingness and performance in every respect have been such as to warrant commendation.

The cooperation of your Branch in this matter is greatly appreciated.

[REDACTED]
Chief, FBIB
